

COLORS OF VOICES

Visualizing Personality

Believe it or not, people have different personality types. And if you don't recognize, which type your co-worker, your team mate or your spouse is, your life will be troublesome and complicated.

Based on the four main personality types and the individual mix, every human being represents, we have created a (wo)man-made sound vocabulary that is translated into lights and colors by the latest in LED technology.

Colors of Voices is a fascinating trip into your own personality, particularly interesting for people who work together on regular basis and want to improve mutual understanding.
