

CORPORATE COMPOSERS

Your company song in 60 minutes

How does your company sound? With Corporate Composers a professional a cappella group becomes your corporate instrument and in less than an hour you hear melodies, harmonies and rhythms created by your employees.

Those who want to sing along, can join in. Those who want the pros to do the singing, become copywriters, arrangers and conductors.

After less than an hour, the Corporate Composer group proudly present a most authentic piece of music: Possibly your future company anthem or audio logo.
