

THE KEYNOTE SHOW

Insight by storytelling

Every serious conference has at least one keynote speaker. Preferred choices are neuro-scientists, futurologists or (former) top athletes. Their success is based on impressive biographies, spectacular track records and a catchy keynote title.

The Keynote Show is a perfect copy of the perfect maestro of rhetoric and success – but the inspiring and entertaining lecture slowly but surely turns into a hilarious parody of all the clichés of “how-to”, “get-things-done” and “self-development”-talks.

Which doesn't mean that your message won't come through: Your very special message will be delivered in a perfectly different way: A fantastic speaker accompanied by a beatbox comedy duo. Welcome to the excitement of storytelling 2.0.
